More About Camp

As Chief Seattle Council's newest camp, Camp Pigott has the finest camp facilities around. Surrounded by a thick grove of trees on a picturesque lake, Camp Pigott not only features a great program and staff, but also brand new craft shelter, shower facilities, beautiful campfire bowl, and popular activities such as an expanded COPE course, mountain bike and mountain boarding courses, and shotgun range. Activities on the lake include swimming, boating and fishing. The trading post is second to none. This is a camp on the move, and promises to be one of the most sought-after camps in the region.

How to Register

Registrations are on a first come, first served basis. A $125 deposit is required to secure your troop's week and campsite. Unit insurance is required for out-of-council troops. In the charts below, enter your top 3 choices for dates and top 4 choices for campsites. Mail with the $125 deposit made out to "Chief Seattle Council" to:

Summer Camp POLICIES and PROCEDURES

Things to remember when signing up for summer camps. Please read carefully and sign below.

1. Deposits and Fees

A $125 deposit is required to reserve space for your troop at summer camp. Fees for 2011 will be $225 per Scout and $125 per paying adult for troops in the Chief Seattle Council. Out-of-council troops will pay $275 per Scout and $135 per paying adult. The unit will be responsible for making timely payments as requested. For more information please visit our website, seattlebsa.org, or call the camping department at (206) 725-0361.

2. Refunds

The refund policy appears in full in the Camp Leaders' Guide. In summary, the $125 deposit is non-refundable, unless the council cannot place you in the camp or site desired. The remainder of the fees may be refundable as stated in the refund policy and requests must be made in writing.

3. Leadership Requirements

Each troop must have two adult leaders, 24 hours per day, while in camp. Scoutmasters must be at least 21 years of age, assistants at least 18 years of age.

4. Medical Information

The Annual Health and Medical Record, Parts A, B & C will be required. For resident camps, all camp participants must have a yearly physical and their form filled out by a health professional. The new forms are available on our website, seattlebsa.org under Council Camping.

5. Insurance

Chief Seattle Council provides accident insurance coverage for units within the council. Out-of-Council units must provide their own unit insurance.

6. Troop Size

An approximate estimate of the number scouts is fine, as long they are finalized by your final payment. Please remember, summer camp is for the youth. Large numbers of adults reduces the number of Scouts attending our camps. Use wisdom as you plan your adult participation. The council reserves the right to change your camp site if needed to accommodate additional campers.

8. T-Shirts

A camp t-shirt is awarded to each boy whose troop participated in an approved work party by June 1, 2011 at any of the council camps (Brinkley, Pigott, Parsons or Sheppard).

I certify that I have read and agree to comply with all the stated policies and procedures.
